News Release

HPD will be Conducting Extra Enforcement this Week

March 15, 2010

The Harrisonburg Police Department will be conducting extra DUI enforcement on Wednesday, March 17 because of St. Patrick's Day. Saturation patrols and checkpoints have been scheduled in areas throughout the City of Harrisonburg.

Saturation patrols will also continue through the upcoming weekend.

It is strongly recommended to those individuals celebrating St. Patrick's Day to do so in a responsible manner.

- Plan a safe and sober way home before celebrating any festivities;
- If you are impaired, use a taxi, public transportation or call a sober friend to ensure you arrive home safely;
- Contact the Harrisonburg Police Department if you see an impaired driver on the roadway;
- Don't let any of your friends drive impaired.

The Harrisonburg Police Department has partnered with Virginia's Smart, Safe, and Sober campaign to promote sober driving.

Don't let your luck run out on St. Patrick's Day. Don't drink and drive.
